JAPANESE CHECKED AND FORCED BACK BY RUSSIAN ARMY

Linevitch's Chief of Staff Stabs Her to Death Says Enemy Retired to Sumushu.

FIGHT WITH CHUNCHUSES SUSPECT UNDER ARREST

Important War Conference The Victim Identifies James Is Held in the City of Tokyo.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.-Messages from the army in Manchuria indicate that the Japanese advance has been checked fr the present, and that the enemy has even been forced to retire.

A dispatch from General Harkevitch, General Linevitch's chief of staff, says the Japanese have been forced to retire on Sumushu, Manchuria. A battle, in which 6,000 Chunchuses were engaged, has been fought, but the result in not known.

War Conference in Tokyo.

TOKYO, April 7 .- An important war conference, which lasted from 10 o'clock this morning until 3 p. m., was held today at the house of Count Katsura, the Marquis Ite, Field Marshal Yamagata, Counts Matsukata and Inovye, and the ministers of war, marine, and foreign af-

An official statement issued today says the bulk of the Russian force made an unsuccessful attack on Chinchiatun, and then retreated to Shumiencheng. The rest of the army is moving along the Fengwa road.

The official dispatches give the first notice of a Russian offensive movement since the fighting at Tieling.

A force of cavalry, with machine and mountain guns, moved south Monday from Tawo, on the Fengwa road, and the next morning began a bombardment of the Japanese advance position at Chirchiatun, north of Kaiyuan.

Simultaneously a large force of infantry advanced along the main Changchun road, while two other columns delivered flank attacks.

JACK THE RIPPER FATALLY WOUNDS UNKNOWN WOMAN

With a Small Penknife.

Boyne Shortly Before She Expires.

NEW YORK, April 7 .- A young wo man, who gave her name as May Wilson, but refused to disclose her identity, died in St. Vincent Hospital, at 9:20 o'clock, this morning from a frightful stab wound inflicted shortly after midnight in the Hotel Lawrence, 50 East Thirteenth street. Before she expired she identified James Boyne, steward of the Avon Beach Regular Democratic Club, at Bay and Twenty-fourth streets, near Bath Beach, as the man who had tabbed her.

Boyne declares he never saw the wo man before he confronted her in the ospital for the purpose of identification. The young woman was about twenty years old, and Boyne gave his age as twenty-one. Blood was found on Boyne's hands and the sleeves of his shirt, also upon his vest. He was arraigned in the police court later and committed to await further examination.

Work of a Degenerate.

The stabbing, according to Police Capain Bourke, is undoubtedly the work of a degenerate with a mania for murder.
"The man who stabbed this woman is a Jack the Ripper," declared the polic captain. "Of that I am certain." The stabbing was most mysterious. man and a woman went to the Hotel Lawrence shortly after midnight, and after registering as "Mr. and Mrs. Smith," were assigned to a room on the second floor. An hour after the man and woman were in the room there came a piercing scream which echoed through the block. The scream was heard by Mrs. Bertha Newell, proprietor of the house, and by Minnie Smith, a chambermaid. The chambermaid ran to the second floor, and was peeping through ters of the Japanese wings. The fightthe couple when the door was thrown open, and a man rushed out, hat and vercoat in hand.

On the bed sat the woman, fully dressed, with blood pouring from a great wound in her abdomen. The chamber maid followed the man to the ground floor, and there meeting Mrs. Newell

"That man has stabbed the wom who came here with him. Hold him." Mrs. Newell and the chambermaid tried to catch hold of the man, when he said: "I haven't stabbed anyone. I am perfectly willing to wait for the po-

Detectives Lloyd and Kenyon, who Detectives Lloyd and Kenyon, who har ened to be near by, and who heard the shriek, came up and placed the man under arrest.

One of the detectives went up to the room and tried to question the woman, but she closed her eyes and refused to give any informatios. It was plain that she was concealing her own identity.

Remained Obstinately Silent.

An ambulance was called, and the woman was removed to St. Vincent's hospital. There it was found that four inches of a broken knife blade was still the abdomen wall, and had made half a dozen punctures in her intestines. The doctors told her she would die, but she remained obstinately silent. A search of the room in which the stabbing occurred brought forth a brok-en case knife, the blade of which had been about fourteen inches long. The been about fourteen inches long. The knife did not belong to the house, and had been brought there by either the man or the woman. It was new.

Boyne was taken to the Mercer street police station and questioned at length. He persisted in his first statement that he did not know the woman, that he had never seen her before, and that he had not stabbed her. Later he was taken to the hospital and into the presence of the dyirg woman.

The Atlantic coast disturbance has moved to the mouth of the St. Lawrence, and is slowly filling up. Pressure is high over the South-astern States and in the Mississippi valley, and there is a depression of considerable magnitude in the upper Missouri valley.

There have been local rains in the upper Ohlo valley, and light snow in the western portion of the lake region; elsewhere fair weather with low temperatures for the season prevails.

Fair weather is indicated for tonight and Saturday, except in eastern New York tonight, where local rain is probable.

The temperature will do to the stabled you, you say?" Captain Bourke asked the woman after she had identified Boyne.

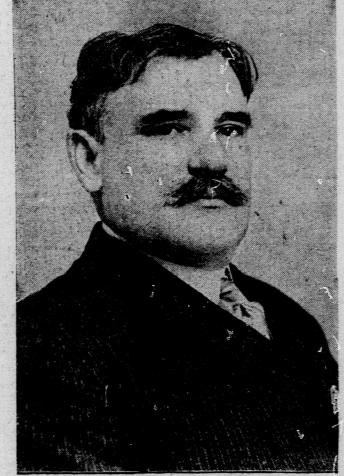

"Yes, he did," she answered. "I met him at Third avenue last night. He asked me to go with him, and I did, like a fool that I was talking with him in the room when suddenly he seized me from behind and plunged a knife into my side. I tried to fight him and buried the knife in my stomach. I don't know why he did it. We had no quarrel and no angry words."

GARBAGE SYSTEM TO BE REFORMED

Authorities Adopt Policy to Abate Nuisance.

Unusually Long Time Allowed That Contractor May Have Ample Time.

Since the drastic action of Commisgarbage must be improved on pain of having a supplementary service at the xpense of the contractors, and the revelation of the existence of conditions at the garbage transfer station, New Jersey avenue and K street southeast, which constitute the place a nuisance, the authorities have determined upon a policy in dealing with contractors in future which will prevent the recurrence of similar unpleasant features during the five years, after December 1 next. Specifications on the next garbage contract are already almost completed, and bids will be invited in the near future. the unusually long time being allowed so that the successful contractor may have ample time to construct necessary buildings and otherwise arrange details for handling the material gathered for the back yards of all Washington.

New System of Fines.

During the past few weeks the work of garbage collection has meen materially improved, and Superintendent Stidham, who recently took charge of the Street Cleaning Department, has many more changes in view. The number of complaints against the service has dropped off to no marked extent, but with the adoption of a new system of fines, whereby the contractor is penalized as much as $5 for a particularly aggravated case of neglecting to collect waste, bids fair to accomplish one of the most desired ends.

Within the year ended April 1, there were a total of 4,800 complaints registered against the garbage collector and fines aggregating $2,442 were imposed in Attorney Wilton J. Lambert. ing illuminating gas, Mrs. Savenia Mc-Devitt, thirty-five years old, was found in her room, 827 G street northeast, this morning, by her twelve-year-old son, and was later taken to the Casualty Hospital. For several hours Drs. Lloyd and Perry, who attended her, entertained no hope for recovery.

At noon, however, they said she was in a semi-conscious condition and would probably be out of danger this after-

Police of the Ninth precinct investigated the case, and Policemen Hayden and Smith reported that the woman had attempted suicide. They said both gas jets in the room were turned on full and they were almost knocked off their feet by the gas when they broke open the door about 7 o'clock.

Separated From Husband.

Mrs. McDevitt and her husband, it is said by those who know them, have not been living together for about six weeks. The separation is believed to have preyed upon her mind. Several weeks ago she went to Providence Hospital, where she underwent an operation. Since then she has been in impaired health. Last evening several of her relatives took dinner with her and left about 10:30 o'clock. Her son, by her first husband, retired at that hour, but says his mother remained up about an hour
